

Red Cross supporters turned out in force in Summit for the Oktoberfest

Published: Sunday, October 03, 2010, 2:20 PM

IP Independent Press

DIRNDL AND LEDERHOSEN DANCE - Liesl and Hans Schultz, of Berkeley Heights, took a spin on the dance floor during the Colonial Crossroads Chapter of the American Red Cross Oktoberfest on Saturday, Oct. 2, in Summit. (Photo by Cowell-Ziegler)

SUMMIT - The Colonial Crossroads chapter of the American Red Cross held an Oktoberfest on Saturday, Oct. 2, on the lawn of its Chapter House in Summit. Visit the photo gallery and see more photos of the fund-raiser.

As might be expected, the evening featured a German band, hors d'oeuvres, including bratwurst, imported and domestic beers and wine...and, yes, Lederhosen, Dirndls and great German hats, filled with pins of all sizes and shapes.

The Colonial Crossroads Chapter has served the residents of Berkeley Heights, Chatham Borough, Chatham Township, East Hanover, Florham Park, Long Hill Township, Madison, New Providence, Springfield and Summit since 1917.

The annual fund-raiser helps keep the doors open and the chapter serving the many communities.

The Colonial Crossroads Chapter disaster action team played a critical role in many local, national and even international emergencies in the last year.

It also trained more than 18,000 people in life-saving skills through its Be Red Cross Ready program.

For more information on the chapter visit ccnjredcross.org

© 2010 NJ.com. All rights reserved.