

Red Cross, Summit Medical Group partner on safety training

By Independent Press

November 06, 2009, 12:33PM

BERKELEY HEIGHTS — The Colonial Crossroads Chapter of the American Red Cross is partnering with the Summit Medical Group to hold a “Be Red Cross Ready” presentation on Thursday, Nov. 12 at 7 p.m.

“This presentation provides tangible steps that can be taken to keep you and your family safe during a disaster or first aid emergency,” a spokesperson said. Topics include having a disaster plan, preparing a first aid kit, and caring for shock. Statistics show that house fires increase during the winter months. This presentation will provide key steps for fire prevention at the home and workplace.

Reservations are required and can be made by calling 888-241-8609 or summitmedicalgroup.com/event. The class will be held at the Education Center of the Summit Medical Group located at 1 Diamond Hill Road, Berkeley Heights. Attendees should park in Lot No. 1 and enter through the Lawrence Pavilion.

© 2009 NJ.com. All rights reserved.