

Chaplain at Overlook Hospital deploys to Haiti for the Colonial Crossroads Chapter of the American Red Cross

By Independent Press

February 12, 2010, 12:58PM

READY TO SERVE — Colonial Crossroads Chapter of the American Red Cross Emergency Services Director Barb Flynn transported Rev. Noster Montas to Newark Airport for his flight to Haiti on Jan. 28. The Summit resident is the first volunteer from the Colonial Crossroads Chapter of the American Red Cross to deploy to Haiti.

SUMMIT — Summit resident the Rev. Noster Montas, a chaplain at Overlook Hospital, is the first volunteer from the Colonial Crossroads Chapter to deploy to Haiti to assist in the relief effort.

Montas deployed on Thursday, Jan. 28, for five weeks. He will be working in support of the Red Cross Service to the Armed Forces on the USNS Comfort as a Creole translator for Haitians who have been brought on board for medical treatment. Montas is a member of the Red Cross Spiritual Care Team.

“Rev. Montas is a great example of what it means to be a volunteer for the American Red Cross,” said Barb Flynn, chapter emergency services director. “On one hour notice he cleared his schedule for the next month and made himself available for this difficult deployment. ”

© 2010 NJ.com. All rights reserved.